

FAMILY LAW FIRM OF THE YEAR

Hamdan AlShamsi Lawyers & Legal Consultants

Hamdan AlShamsi Lawyers & Legal Consultants (HAS) provides legal services at a local and international level. The Dubai-based firm spans a broad range of legal specialisations including banking and finance, construction, corporate, criminal, family, intellectual property, maritime, employment, oil and gas, and real estate. Since launching in 2011, the practice has overseen more than 3,000 litigation disputes in the UAE courts, DIFC courts, and various arbitration centres and has advised in more than 130 transactional and advisory matters. The firm's approach is centred around what it considers to be the four pillars of success: transparency, innovation, trust and relationship.

The judges were particularly impressed by HAS Law Firm's work within family law. Their expert team of family and divorce lawyers appreciate and understand that emotions can run high and that the process can be difficult for all parties involved. With an empathetic approach, HAS can de-escalate the situation using their vast experience to reach an amicable decision that works out best for the entire family. Furthermore, their multilingual team have extensive experience handling all types of family litigation cases for UAE expats including guardianship hearings, custody disputes, financial restitution and support, divorce and separation cases, pre- and post-nuptial agreements, wills, and more.
